Newest Sales Team addition for the Middle East market

June 2021

At #heytex, we believe that characters take our brand forward.

With Imran Shah, we gain another competent character as a sales representative for the Middle East Region.

Imran Shah brings with him fifteen years of experience in Sales, Marketing and General Management in the Middle East, North Africa and India Region, combined with an Engineering background having worked in the construction Industry for architecture tensile membranes, tents and various other technical textile applications such as advertising & signage and interior fittings.

Imran has successful track record and experiences in developing new markets, launching new products, as well as winning new distribution partners and specifying projects with consultants, architects and public authorities.

At Heytex Imran has the opportunity to being part of a multicultural and dynamic team and will be primarily responsible for sales in the Middle East market.

Imran Shah lives with his wife and two children in Dubai.

We look forward to working with him and wish him every success!

Imran Shah, ready for business
